

From: Rod Roark
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 11/29/01 4:08pm
Subject: Opinion from Davis, CA

I am astounded and disappointed that the DOJ is trying to forfeit the ball game when it's already been won.

Microsoft has already been found guilty of breaking the law in very serious and malicious ways. They have also demonstrated disrespect for the law and for a multitude of other moral principles that may get in the way of the company's profitability.

For crying out loud, do your duty. Break up Microsoft.

Respectfully,
Rod Roark
Davis, CA